

ALERTS

LexisNexis® File & Serve users throughout the country can use Alerts to gain more direct control over managing documents and monitoring case activity.

A GREAT VALUE!

An Alert is an “electronic assistant” that monitors the LexisNexis File & Serve system for you 24/7. You define the search criteria, and your “assistant” constantly searches for new case activity matching your criteria. Use Alerts to:

Gain more direct control over managing documents	Gain more direct control over monitoring case activity
Reduce uncertainty >> Ensure that deadlines are met >> Learn quickly of court-issued orders and rulings	Improve client service >> Be the first to know about new lawsuits against your clients before they are served >> Discreetly monitor cases you or your clients are interested in
Improve case management >> Receive rapid email delivery of key information you specify >> Automatically route action items within your firm	Enhance client development >> Ensure that you secure business from existing or new clients right away >> Monitor trends or new case types
Maximize resources & reduce costs >> More cost effective than manual tracking processes >> Share Alert notifications for no additional charge	Interested in finding out more about Alerts or need a quick training/demo? Send inquires and/or questions to our Training Department at fileandservetraining@lexisnexis.com

Alert pricing is as follows:

- >> $15 per Alert per month (regardless of number of “hits”.)
- >> No additional charge for “shared” notification recipients within the same organization.
- >> Alerts and/or “shared” notification recipients can be disabled at any time.
